Satyawati College : An Introduction

Satyawati College, a constituent college of the University of Delhi was established in 1972 to honour the memory of the great freedom fighter Satyawati Devi (1904-1945). She was the grand daughter of Swami Shraddhanand who left an indelible mark in the annals of the nationalist movement.

Her greatest contribution is the fact that she motivated women to join the freedom movement. Her indomitable spirit can be judged by the poems she wrote in jail.

“Once you have stepped forward, never retreat
Die before the men in the battlefield

Do not fear bullets or sticks
Put your head forward before the men”

This fearlessness inspired innumerable women including Aruna Asif Ali who credited Satyawati with motivating her to join the nationalist movement. Satyawati Devi actively participated in Civil Disobedience Movement. She was the leader of women wing and organized breaking of salt law in Delhi where she and her companions made and distributed salt packets. She was sentenced to jail for 2 years but her courageous spirit found expression in poems urging people, and especially women, to strengthen the movement. No wonder Mahatama Gandhi affectionately called her Toofani Bahan. In her short life she left her mark on the pages of history and Jaiprakash Narain called her Dilli Ki Joan of Arc. The college wishes to continue with the feisty spirit of Satyawati Devi and emulate her illustrious life.
