

Additional Eligibility Criteria for Admission

All Honours Courses

Subjects from the vocational stream and subjects from the academic stream like Physical Education, Fine Arts, Home Science, Painting, Drawing, Agriculture, Music, Dance, Commercial Arts, Shorthand & Typewriting in B.Com (H), Economics (H), English (H), History (H), Math (H) and Political Science (H) courses will not be considered. However, only one subject from the academic stream may be considered for Hindi (H), Sanskrit (H) & Urdu (H).

B.Com (H)

- (a) 8% marks in aggregate will be deducted if none of the following four subjects have been studied by the student
- (b) 6% marks in aggregate will be deducted if only one of the following four subjects has been studied by the student:
- (c) 4% marks in aggregate will be deducted if two of the following subjects have been studied by the student:
- (d) 2% marks in aggregate will be deducted if three of the following subjects have been studied by the student:

Mathematics, Accounts, Business Studies and Economics.

One of the subjects like Computer Science, Informatics Practices, Entrepreneurship, Web & Multimedia Technology, Accounting & Auditing, Marketing & Salesmanship, Purchasing & Storekeeping and banking may be considered.

Economics (H)

60% in English and Mathematics. For calculation of aggregate of best four subjects, two subjects from the academic stream and only banking from vocational stream will be considered.

English (H)

Student must have secured 70% marks in Elective English or 75% marks in Core English. Computer Science and Fine Arts may be considered in best four subjects.

Hindi (H)

Student must have secured 60% in Hindi Elective/Core in qualifying exam

Mathematics (H)

75% in Maths or 85% in Business Maths in class XII. Computer Science and Informatics Practices may be considered.

Pol. Science (H) & History (H)

Student must have offered Political Science and History as a subject in qualifying exam for B.A. (H) Political Science and B.A. (H) History respectively. Those who have not done so will be considered with a deduction of 5% marks from the aggregate.