

The College takes pride in announcing the digitalization of its Library with many books and articles that are now available in electronic form for students and teachers. This step is in line with earlier initiatives to take the Library forward via the electronic media and make it more user friendly.