Subject: Request to ensure active participation of students from all affiliated colleges in the Tribal Cultural and Educational Festival.

Respected Sir/Madam,

Greetings / Jai Johar.

Through this letter, I would like to draw your kind attention to a highly significant and historic event organized to preserve and promote tribal culture, art, and history. The Bharatiya Adimjati Sevak Sangh (BAJSS) is organizing a grand Tribal Festival and Workshop in the coming days. We earnestly request the active participation of students from your esteemed university and all its affiliated colleges.

Brief History of Bharatiya Adimjati Sevak Sangh (BAJSS):

The Bharatiya Adimjati Sevak Sangh (BAJSS) is a highly prestigious and historic national organization. It was established on October 24, 1948, under the presidency of the first President of India, Dr. Rajendra Prasad, with the profound inspiration of the Father of the Nation, Mahatma Gandhi. The core objective of the Sangh is the social, economic, educational, and cultural upliftment of the tribal (Adimjati) communities living in the remote areas of India. Since its inception, the organization has been working continuously to preserve the traditional knowledge, art, and unique lifestyle of tribal communities and present it with pride to mainstream society.

Context of National Education Policy (NEP-2020) & Indian Knowledge System (IKS):

As you are well aware, the National Education Policy (NEP-2020) implemented by the Government of India lays special emphasis on integrating the 'Indian Knowledge System' (IKS) into higher education. The primary goal of NEP-2020 is to connect students with their roots, indigenous wisdom, and traditional heritage. In this regard, our organization's campus, library, and museum can serve as an excellent academic center for students. The Sangh houses an invaluable and historic library attached to the 'Tribal Museum and Tribal Research' established in 1962.

This library contains a rare collection of over 15,000 books on tribal history, anthropology, and indigenous lifestyles. This rich heritage can play a pivotal role in enriching students' understanding of the Indian Knowledge System and assisting them in research work.

Event Details (Date, Time & Venue):

- Event Dates: August 15, 2026, to August 31, 2026
- Timings: 03:00 PM to 08:00 PM daily
- Venue: Thakkar Bappa Smarak Sadan, Dr. Ambedkar Road, Near Jhandewalan Metro Station (Gate No. 4), New Delhi - 110055

Key Highlights and Activities of the Event:

1. Historic Library & Museum Visit: Students can explore over 15,000 rare books and archival documents on tribal history.
2. Workshop by Surrendered Naxal Artists: The most inspiring highlight of this event is the live handicraft and world-famous 'Warli Painting' workshop conducted by artists who have surrendered Naxalism and returned to the mainstream. These artists will teach their skills to the students and share their transformational journeys.
3. Tribal Handicrafts & Millets Exhibition: A special exhibition featuring traditional tribal handicrafts alongside healthy, indigenous food products and millets (such as Kodo, Kutki, Ragi, etc.) will be on display.
4. Tribal Fashion Show: A unique fashion show blending traditional tribal attire with modern design elements to captivate the youth.
5. Cultural Experience (Food, Dance & Music): Students can relish authentic tribal cuisines and experience the vibrant energy of tribal heritage through live folk dance and musical performances.

Our Request:

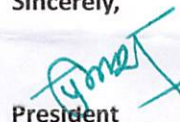

Since the youth are the cultural ambassadors of our nation and understanding the Indian Knowledge System is essential in this new era of higher education, we kindly request you to issue an official directive/circular to the Principals of all affiliated colleges. Please encourage them to motivate their students (especially from Arts, Social Sciences, History, and Cultural Studies departments) to participate in this 15-day festival and workshop.

If the colleges could intimate the expected date, time, and number of visiting students in advance, it would help us arrange a warm welcome and dedicated guides for them.

We look forward to your positive cooperation and support.

With warm regards,

Sincerely,

President

(Bharatiya Adimjati Sevak Sangh (BAJSS))
