Satyawati College (Morning) Clarifies Media Reports Regarding Arrest of Individual Allegedly Involved in Supplying marijuana

New Delhi, June 10, 2026:

Satyawati College, University of Delhi, wishes to clarify certain media reports published in various newspapers regarding the arrest of Mr. Jaseem Siyadul Farsan for allegedly supplying Marijuana.

The College would like to state unequivocally that Mr. Jaseem Siyadul Farsan is not a student of Satyawati College (Morning College). As per available records, he is a student of B.A. Semester VIII at Satyawati College (Evening).

It is important to note that Satyawati College (Morning) and Satyawati College (Evening) are two separate institutions functioning under the University of Delhi, each having its own administration, student body, and academic structure.

In view of the reports appearing in the media, the College considers it necessary to place the correct facts on record so that there is no misunderstanding regarding the identity of the institution associated with the concerned individual.

Satyawati College morning remains committed to maintaining the highest standards of academic excellence, discipline, and institutional integrity.
